

* DESCRIPTIONS AND PREREQUISITES FOR SPECIAL TOPIC COURSES KELLETT SCHOOL

ED 780 K1	Special Topics: Creating Balanced Classroom Assessment System	3 semester hours
	A seminar-style course in which the content changes in response to current trends in education and/or to meet certification requirements. Major course topics include the following: Gradual Release of Responsibility; research & application of effective practices within disciplinary fields; co-teaching models; academic interventions & systems of support; incorporating Understanding by Design elements into unit plans Prerequisites: consent of the Director of the Graduate Education Programs.
MU 680 K1	Special Topics:First Steps in Music	2 semester hours
	Courses with various topics relating to music education. Offered: summer.
MU 680 K2	Special Topics:First Steps in Music	semester hour
	Courses with various topics relating to music education. Offered: summer.
MU 680K1	Special Topics: Exploring Black Choral Composers	1 semester hour
	Courses with various topics relating to music education. Offered: summer.
MU 680K2	Special Topics: Exploring Black Choral Composers	semester hour
	Courses with various topics relating to music education. Offered: summer.	