LAK 107 Personal Development – This course focuses on personal growth and wellness of the individual. Students consider physical, intellectual, social/emotional, and/or spiritual dimensions of their lives and create and implement goals for further development. Emphasis is on experiential learning.

LAK 108 Community Living and Engagement – This course focuses on living successfully in community as a responsible, engaged, and contributing citizen. Emphasis is on experiential learning. Students set and apply goals aimed at enhancing essential understandings, abilities, and dispositions.

Examples of Academic Certificate Options / Coursework

Students who complete the prescribed 96 semester hour equivalent program are awarded the Life and Career Studies Diploma Certificate. They also have the opportunity to earn an institutionally endorsed audited certificate in an academic area of interest.

Audited certificates may be completed by any undergraduate student on campus. Alternative coursework to comprise certificates may be included to tailor certificates to the student's interests. Additional certificates can be created to best meet the interests and future employment needs of the student.
