

International Application Procedures

INTERNATIONAL UNDERGRADUATE INTERNATIONAL GRADUATE

Step 1: International applicants submit application and other required supporting documents.

Send completed international application and all required documents to international admissions for consideration. Please refer to the admission requirement sheet for details.

Please submit all documents to:

International Admissions
Lakeland University
W3718 South Drive
Plymouth, WI 53073-4878
U.S.A.

Step 2: Lakeland University reviews your application and makes a decision

If you are academically and financially admissible, the university will send you an official acceptance letter by email or regular mail. The letter will specify:

- the term to which you have been admitted
- our request of a minimum of U.S. $100 commitment deposit. The deposit is non-refundable. (traditional day students)
- mandatory health insurance requirement (traditional day students)

Step 3: Lakeland University sends you a SEVIS I-20 or DS2019 and a housing packet (traditional day students)

Upon receipt and confirmation of your deposit, the university will send you:

- on-campus housing application and housing agreement (requiring a $200 housing deposit)
- health assessment form
- orientation and airport pickup information
- information on how to pay the SEVIS fee and apply for your student visa

Step 4: Student makes the SEVIS fee payment of $200, arrange for a visa interview and make preparations for arrival on campus once granted a visa.

Please contact the U.S. embassy/consulate in your country for the detailed visa application procedure. If you are granted a visa to attend Lakeland University, notify the university of the approval, fill out the housing application and the agreement and return them to the college for your on-campus housing arrangements. For your timely arrival at Lakeland University, you should book your plane ticket as soon as possible. Please also give us your detailed flight information so that the college can arrange to pick you up at General Mitchell International Airport (MKE) in Milwaukee, Wisconsin.
