The Federal Direct Parent PLUS Loan provides loans to parents of dependent students attending post-secondary schools. All loan funds received under the program must be used to pay for the cost of attending a post-secondary school.

LOAN INFORMATION
1. Interest rate is fixed at 7.9%.
2. A minimum of a 4% origination fee is deducted, by the federal government, from the gross amount of the loan.
3. Payments begin 60 days after the latest disbursement or a request can be made to the U.S. Department of Education to defer payments until six months after the date the student ceases to be enrolled at least half-time. Interest during postponement can be paid monthly, quarterly, or capitalized (quarterly).
4. The parent is required to undergo a credit evaluation based on criteria set by the U.S. Department of Education.

INSTANT PRE-APPROVAL
Parents can now apply for instant pre-approval for the PLUS loan online. The Financial Aid Office will be notified of the credit decision. If the application is approved, the Financial Aid Office will certify the PLUS Loan. If a parent is denied a PLUS loan, the student's financial aid package will be reviewed to determine if there is additional Federal Direct Unsubsidized Loan eligibility ($4000-Freshman/Sophomore; $5000 Junior/Senior). A revised award letter will be completed.

For your convenience, we offer two ways of applying for a PLUS loan, an online process or a paper process.

   The Financial Aid Office will perform the pre-approval process for you and the U.S. Department of Education will notify you, by mail, of the credit decision.

(2) PLUS Master Promissory Note (MPN) for first-time Federal Direct PLUS Loan borrowers
If you are approved for the PLUS loan, the Financial Aid Office will certify the plus loan. If you are a first-time PLUS borrower, you will receive a PLUS MPN in the mail from the U.S. Department of Education. The MPN should be completed and returned to the U.S. Department of Education.
